VOL. XXIV, NO. 200 GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1907 TEN CENTS A WEEK

13 PERSONS DROWN

Ferryboat Capsized on Tombigbee River in Alabama.

BOAT CAUGHT IN THE RAPIDS

Occupants Were Thrown into Swift Current and Drowned Almost Instantly—River Very Treacherous at Point Where Boat Capsized.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 28.—Leslie Vernille, a white boy of Mobile and 12 negroes were drowned in the Tombigbee river at McGrews shoals, a little while after noon Tuesday, while crossing the river in a ferry boat from the government's works where they were employed. They were on their way to dinner when the accident occurred.

About midstream the little boat drifted beyond control of the men into the rapids and soon capsized. Two of the negroes in the boat scrambled on top as it overturned but the other occupants were thrown into the swift current and were drowned almost instantly.

The young white boy drowned is the son of W. B. Vernille, the chief engineer in charge of the government works at the shoals. Their home is in Oakdale, a suburb of Mobile.

The boy was not employed at the works, but was there on a visit to his father and was returning home when the accident occurred.

The Tombigbee river, at the point where the boat capsized, is very treacherous and has long been considered too dangerous for inexperienced steamboat men.

COMER FAVORS LOCAL OPTION.

Would Not Advise a State Prohibition Law for Alabama.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 28—The governor sets at rest all the talk about his incorporating in his call the question of considering a general prohibition bill when the extra session is called.

"In the call for an extra session" says the governor, "I would not employ a prohibition call and would not advise a state prohibition law."

The governor explains his position, saying that he had been asked by both sides about the matter. He says that when he was making his campaign throughout the state for governor he "stated in every county that I favored local option; thus giving every county the opportunity to vote as to whether or not they should have saloons, dispensaries or prohibition. • • • I favored the local option law as enacted by the last legislature and think that it should stand until the people have opportunity to vote on the question as a state policy."

Swears He Is 107 Years Old.

Huntsville, Ala., Sept. 28.—William Winkle, of Gurley, has filed an application with the state auditor to be transferred from a pensioner of the second class to the first class under the law recently passed by the legislature and in doing so swears that he is 107 years old. Mr. Winkle is believed to be the oldest man in north Alabama. He enlisted in the confederate army when he was 62 years old and served until the end of the war.

Another Standard Oil Case.

Findlay, Ohio, Sept. 27.—Another case against the Standard Oil company brought by independent producers was started here Friday in common pleas court before Judge Duncan. The title of the case is George H. Phelps against the Standard Oil company, seven subsidiary concerns, John D. Rockefeller and seven other officials of the concerns.

Demand Made of Shah.

Teheran, Sept. 28—A signed document by high officials and the commander of the army has been presented to the shah to the effect that unless the sovereign accepts without reserve and will act accordingly to the demands of a constitutional government, they will resign in a body from his service.

TRIAL OF SENATOR BORAH.

Government Attorneys Turned Line of Evidence into New Channels.

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 28—After having spent all of the previous day in bringing out the testimony of thirteen persons who admitted they had taken out claims to timber lands for the express purpose of selling them to members of an alleged land-grabbing conspiracy, the government attorneys in the trial of United States Senator Borah here Friday turned the line of evidence into new channels which they claim will tend to affect the defendant senator. The testimony admitted up to Tuesday has been confined to the activities of John I. Wells and Louis M. Prior, two of the men under indictment.

None of the dummy entrymen examined on Wednesday was cross-examined and the testimony that was received from Wells, the money with which to prove their claims, and from Prior and the $250 bonds for each pending their trips west was uncontroverted. Just prior to adjournment the prosecuting attorney identified the signatures of former Governor Frank Steunenberg and William Sweet to a document said to have been a contract.

It is alleged that Steunenberg and Sweet falsely furnished the money with which the alleged fraudulent claims were carried on.

TROOPS CALLED OUT.

Wild Reports of Possible Trouble Proved To Be Groundless.

Mobile, Ala., Sept 28—Wild reports in which there was no credence caused one company of the militia to be sent to Plateau, a negro settlement three miles from Mobile at 4:45 o'clock Friday morning.

The reports were started by persons of no authority and there was not the slightest occasion for sending for troops.

Several families who were employed at a factory near Plateau, came to the city saying that the negroes were holding secret meetings and were going to avenge the death of a negro, Mose Bassett, who was lynched on Sunday morning for attempting to rape an aged white woman near the place.

At 7 o'clock the place was very quiet and not the least trouble is expected. The affair in many instances has been greatly exaggerated.

INCENDIARY FIRE.

Hundeds of Houses Burned at Wu Chow, China—Loss of Life.

Hong Kong, Sept. 28.—Hundreds of houses and many boats and pontoons were destroyed Friday by a fire at Wu Chow.

It is feared that the loss of life was heavy.

The conflagration is said to have been due to incendiarism growing out of the recent establishment of a new interior customs station at Wu Chow, the inhabitants of which are bitterly opposed to any extra taxation.

Names of New Battleships.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 28.—North Dakota will be the name of the battleship No. 23, one of the new 20,000-ton vessels, contracts for which were recently awarded by the navy department. The other vessel as heretofore announced, will be called the Delaware. President Roosevelt has decided that as so many naval vessels bear the names of New York cities it would be unfair to carry out the original plan of naming No. 23 the New York, and of changing the cruiser of that name to the "Saratoga."

Drink, Despair, Death.

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 28.—Joseph Devore, aged 66, a civil war veteran of Forest, shot himself to death here with a rifle. He had been drinking and was despondent.

Well Known Mason Dies.

Close Election at Gray, Ga.

Gray, Ga., Sept. 28.—The election here for local taxation for school purposes was carried by a majority of one vote.

VICTIMS OF FLOODS

Six Hundred Persons Reported Drowned.

GREAT DISASTER IN JAPAN

River Otonashigawa Rose More than Fifty Feet and Ran Through a Town With Immense Loss of Life and Damage Accruing.

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 28.—Advices of a terrible disaster due to great floods prevailing in Japan, have been received here.

In the overflow of the river Otonashigawa, running through the town of Fukuiyama, near Kyoto, more than six hundred persons were drowned. The river rose more than fifty feet.

GUARDING "TEDDY BEARS."

Painstaking Preparations Being Made for Pres. Roosevelt's Hunt.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 28.—President Roosevelt will have good bear hunting in northeast Louisiana next month if painstaking preparations can produce such sport.

It was announced here that for a few weeks past the swamps in which the president will hunt have been so well guarded by the owners of the property, in preparation for the president's hunt, that even the sound of a gunshot has not disturbed the swamp animals.

Two of the swiftest and best trained bear dogs in the south have been secured from the Kentucky farm of Norvin T. Harris for use in the pack which the president will follow. The presence of the best dogs obtainable is necessary because in October Louisiana bears are usually lean after the summer's heat, and consequently give hunters a swift run.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

Atlanta, Sept. 28.—The Jones avenue viaduct collapsed Friday morning about 11 o'clock, when an engine hit one of the posts, knocking it from under the structure.

Although the bridge came down with a crash from one end to the other, the engineer and fireman of the engine which caused the accident escaped with their lives by jumping just in time. There was one team on the bridge at the time of the collapse and the negro driver went down with his wagon, horse and debris, and sustained serious injuries.

Fortunately, there were no other persons immediately on the bridge when it fell, or the loss of life would have been frightful.

As it is, the entire bridge, which was comparatively new and built of steel and stone, is a mass of ruins.

400 Students at University.

Athens, Ga., Sept. 28.—The registration books of the university of Georgia show the names of 393 students, and it is known that at least a dozen students are here who have not yet registered. Thus it is seen that the attendance has already passed the four hundred mark. Last year the four hundred mark was not passed until October 20, thus giving the present session almost a month in which to show its increase over last year.

Automobile Kills Peasant.

Paris, Sept. 28.—An automobile containing Mrs. William Graham, of Santa Barbara, Calif., her daughter and a [illegible], knocked down and killed a peasant Thursday near Auxerre, about a hundred miles from the city of Paris. The chauffeur in trying to avoid the accident, ditched the machine.

Bainbridge Man Drowned.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 28.—Lawton Wilson, of Bainbridge, Ga., and two negroes employed in the construction of a bridge over the Tombigbee river, near Alleeville, Ala., were drowned Wednesday while crossing the river in a skiff.

OCEAN'S BOTTOM RAISED.

New Mountain Peak Formed by Recent Upheavals in the Far North.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 28.—Captain A. J. Henderson, of the revenue cutter Thetis, on arrival here from an Arctic expedition, confirmed with official reports the account of a violent volcanic eruption of Mt. Makushin, on Sept. 1, and the existence of a new peak rising from the sea forming a part of the Bogoslov formation.

The latest addition is the fourth, and with its appearance the bottom of the ocean has raised until channels formerly sufficiently large for the passage of ships are now dry land.

The Makushin volcano was threatening for six hours, and ashes heavily impregnated with sulphur fell to a depth of three-eighths of an inch.

The mountain is 25 miles from Unalaska. Reports made to Captain Henderson in the north state three other similar volcanic disturbances have occurred along the Alaskan coast during the present summer.

ACK HALE TESTIFIES.

Makes Sweeping Denial of Charge of Murder Against Him.

Bristol, Tenn., Sept. 28.—Ack Hale, who is on trial at Blountville for the murder of Lillie Davis, the crime having been committed in East Hill cemetery, in the city last March, on Thursday took the stand in his own behalf and gave substantially the same version of the tragedy as when first arrested a few minutes after the fatal shot was fired.

Hale made a sweeping denial of the charge of murder, and contradicted all the witnesses for the prosecution as to the events of the afternoon and evening on which the girl met her death. He testifies that he had been intimate with his alleged victim, but officers were called in rebuttal who declared that he denied while under arrest that there had been any intimacy between them.

In several other important particulars Hale's story was shaken upon cross-examination or by rebuttal evidence.

OIL TANK EXPLODES.

As a Result of which Three Men Were Instantly Killed in New York.

New York, Sept. 28.—Three men were instantly killed Friday morning by the explosion of an oil tank in the Bronx, from which they were drawing crude petroleum into a sprinkling cart for use on the Morris Park race track.

destroyed by the fire which followed off the top of the tank and hurled it into the yard of the Catholic prolelocy near by, alarming the fiftee nboys therein, and shattered many of the windows of the prolelocy.

Eight Injured in a Fire.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 28.—Eight persons were injured in a fire here on Thursday which damaged the establishments of the McElroy-Shannon Spring Bed company, the May R. Shirt Manufacturing company, the Paris laundry and D. W. Holmes livery stable to the extent of $50,000. There were 15 girls employed in the shirt factory and in the panic which ensued Miss Southworth was injured, and many had narrow escapes. The president of the McElroy-Shannon Co. lives at Carthage, Mo.

Roosevelt Ready to Listen to Strikers.

Washington, Sept. 28.—President Roosevelt said Friday that he had consented to receive some documentary statements from the striking telegraph operators and that when these are in his hands he would undoubtedly call into consultation Commissioner of Labor Neill. Further than this he said that no arrangements had been made for the conference regarding the telegraphers' strike.

Store Burglarized.

Buford, Ga., Sept. 28.—Burglars broke into the store of Indus Bowden, who conducts a large racket store here, and helped themselves to a number of articles, including hats, shoes, cutlery and a few dollars that were left in the cash register. Bloodhounds were put on their tracks, but failed to catch them.

ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

Indictments Against the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC ALSO

Indictments, It Is Said, Embrace 140 Counts and Relate Particularly to Violations of the Law on Shipments from the Orient.

San Francisco, Sept 28.—According to a report in circulation here six indictments were found Tauresday by the federal grand jury against the Pacific Mail Steamship company, and the Southern Pacific company.

In these indictments the names of Edward H. Harriman, John C. Stubbs and R. P., Schmerin, it is understood are mentioned. The indictments, it is said, embrace 140 counts and relate particularly to violations of the law on shipments from the Orient through the port of San Francisco to Chicago. The particular instances in which the law is said to have been violated relate to shipments of matting from Kobe to Chicago, these shipments being very heavy and numerous during a number of months of the year.

A special agent, Mr. Duncan of the interstate ecommerce commission, has been on the Pacific coast for several months and also in Japan investigating these shipments and how the Pacific Mail and Southern Pacific have been making rates lower than [illegible] on them at various times. It is the making of a lower rate than the published tariff on which the indictments have been based.

Southern Pacific officials are said to have admitted that prior to the enforcement of the new rate law they had not been strictly living up to the three-day notice provision of the law, because of the impossibility of doing so, and receiving their cargoes of Orient shipments to this coast in competition with foreign lines. They insist, however that since the new law has gone into effect they have not made any lower one than the published one and have not violated the law.

This, it is claimed, is the first case in the history of trans-pacific traffic through this port that a federal grand jury has ever made indictments for violation of the interstate law.

Henry M. Flagler Ill.

New York, Sept. 28.—Henry M. Flagler, vice president of the Standard Oil company, is seriously ill in the Mount Washington hotel, Bretton woods, N. H. His condition is understood to be serious. His personal physician and nurses are in constant attendance. Mr. Flagler's illness is attributed to the effects of an attack of the grip which he suffered while he was in St. Augustine, Fla., last April. At that time he was very much weakened from overwork and went to the Key West railroad.

Fatal Gasoline Explosion.

Cosherton, Ohio, Sept. 28—Geo. Stitt was fatally and Mrs. Hattie Kneed seriously hurt in an explosion of gasoline in the dry-cleaning department of the Eureka laundry, and the Domestic Rug company here. Fifty girls were at work at the time of the explosion. A panic ensued and many of the girls were slightly injured. The three-story building was completely destroyed by the fire which followed immediately after the explosion. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

Child's Tragic End.

Hillsboro, Ohio, Sept. 28.—Ora Hamilton, the 8-year-old daughter of r. and rs. Walter Hamilton, of this place, was burned to death while attempting to start a fire in a stove by using coal oil. The residence and contents were also completely destroyed.

Carrie Nation Out of Jail.

Washington Sept. 27.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, recently committed to the workhouse for refusal to pay a fine to the workhouse for disorderly conduct, was released Thursday, her fine having been paid by a friend.

BALL WANTS FOOT BALL.

Commandant of University Thinks Foot Ball Team is Proper Thing.

Lieutenant Louis R. Ball of the University of Florida is a firm believer in foot ball and is endeavoring to organize a team here. Lieutenant Ball realizes the importance of the exercise attendant upon such an organization, and feels that it would prove of great help to the members in a physical way.

A meeting will be held at the White House, East Main street N. Monday night, at which it is hoped there will be a good crowd. An invitation is extended to the public, and everyone interested are urgently requested to be on hand.

Lieutenant Ball is desirous of organizing two teams—one from the University and the other from the town boys, and by this means the two teams may keep matters worked up with interest.

COLEMAN—GAY.

Marriage of Two Popular Young People at Hawthorn.

Mr. Newton W. Coleman and Miss Ruth Gay were married at the residence of Rev. G. W. Riles at Hawthorn last Tuesday afternoon, September 24th, Rev. G. W. Riles officiating. Only a few friends were present, all of whom heartly congratulated them. Their many friends sincerely pray that the blessings of happiness and prosperity may accompany them throughout their married life.

Evans and Hayman Nuptials.

On Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, September 25th, Mr. A. E. Evans and Miss Alzade Hayman were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hayman, Oakton, Fla., Rev. J. N. Thompson officiating. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream silk poplin and the groom looked his best in a suit of conventional black.

Immediately after they were pronounced man and wife congratulations were in order, after which the guests repaired to the dining-room, where a sumptuous dinner was partaken of. Mr and Mrs. Evans left on the 12:30 train for Inverness where they will make their future home. The best wishes of their numerous friends go with them.

Some Fine Pups.

Sheriff Fennell, who is a great admirer of dogs, is fortunate, as some thoughtful friend is continually remembering him.

The last gift to Sheriff Fennell was a pair of fine fox hounds, which came from Joseph, Texas, and was shipped to Mr. Fennell by his old friend, J. L. Boulware, formerly of this county.

The animals are only four months old, and are very fine. Mr. Fennell naturally thinks a great deal of them, and proposes to put them "on the trail" at the first opportunity.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Eva Futch Entertains Young Friends in Grand Style.

One of the most enjoyable social events among the younger set for many months was the celebration last Friday afternoon by Miss Eva Futch of her thirteenth birthday. There were forty guests present in honor of the occasion and each one of them will ever hold the day in fond remembrance.

The residence of the young lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Futch, was profusely and handsomely decorated in honor of the event, the color scheme being pink and white, flowers, principally chrysanthemums, being used to carry out the effect. The dining-room mantel was banked with ferns and chrysanthemums, and the room was lighted with pink candles. The cake, which was the center of attraction, was surrounded by thirteen candles, which were extinguished by thirteen girls—Omera McBeath, Mozelle Burkhim, Mary and Belle Floyd, Utera Rogers, Bernice DeLand, Kate Daughtrey, Lila Ford, Ruth McDonald, Helen Phifer, Lucille Livingston, Otelia Medlin and Helen Beeman—each of whom, with the same breath, expressed a wish for Miss Eva's future happiness. Thirteen chrysanthemums also surrounded the cake, while jardinieres and vases were filled with the same flowers.

The afternoon was pleasantly passed by the elder of the young people in progressive games, while the younger ones indulged in a "peanut grab." In the progressive games the first prize, a box of Huyler's candy, was won by Bernice DeLand, the booby, a bank, going to Helen Phifer. Lois Clyatt was the successful peanut grabber, and was awarded a Teddy bear; Hope McClamroch secured the booby in this contest.

At the conclusion of the games elegant refreshments were served and heartily enjoyed by all present.

Ruth McDonald received the guests at the door, while Lila Ford presided at the fruit punch bowl. Misses Ida McDonald, Louise Nixon and Marion Futch assisted in entertaining during the evening. The house was a scene of beauty and merriment during the entire afternoon, and Miss Eva is to be congratulated upon the elegant manner in which she entertained.

LETTER TO E. C. CHITTY & SON,
Micanopy, Florida.

Dear Sirs: Here's a tale with a point to it. Florida is the hardest State in the Union for Paint.

Gilmore & Davis Co., Tallahassee, Florida, think they know what paint can do in their climate; they've been painting for 35 years. Devoe ten years, and they say Devoe wears 10 years—their words are: "Buildings we painted Devoe 10 years ago are in good condition of paint today."

They also say lead-and-oil wears only one year there; Devoe 10 years!

Ten years is a long lifetime for paint in Florida; longer than 20 in Maine. We don't dare say that either is true as a general fact in those States; but there are such instances.

If we should call the cost of Devoe in Florida half of the usual cost of paint, it would be too much; we suppose it's about one-third; there is so much trash there—the costliest paint is the worst, and the worst is the costliest everywhere.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

(From The St. Augustine Meteor.)

In a letter asking for a sample copy of The Meteor, a would-be settler asks these questions: "What does Florida stand most in need of and what would be the best procedure for a new-comer?"

We answered a similar question to this in The Datil Pepper, some ten years ago, and the answer given then seems as apropos to us today as it did at that time, and we commend it to the questioner as follows:

If a commission, composed of sincere, practical men, were appointed to investigate the greatest needs of Florida and to outline a policy for new-comers to pursue, they would report about as follows: First, the up-building of a system of good roads. This to be done as nearly as possible with the material at hand. Commencing at the county seat and branching out in several directions and extending to the lines of adjoining counties, a continuous system of roads could be built from one end of the State to the other. On the light, sandy lands, after all surface roots have been removed, pine straw from the adjacent forests could be placed in abundance. Then on the flatwoods—low lands—the surface soil from each side of the road could be thrown up, and something akin to turnpikes would thus be made. These would prove a blessing to man and beast alike, reducing the cost of transportation and time of transit, in consequence of the capacity of teams to pull greater loads and more quickly than upon the ordinary roads. These main arteries would give life to trade, open up new industries, stimulate producers to raise more of everything, and thus add to the wealth and prosperity of the State.

Stock, comprising cattle and a few hogs, and a quota of sheep and goats proportionate to the advantages of the locality, should be regarded as a most valuable adjunct of the farm.

The next wholesome advice would relate to crops, and the tiller of the soil would be given to understand that the first consideration should be given to those crops needed to meet the demand of man and beast upon the place, and that these could be best had by the planting of cassava, potatoes, velvet beans, peas, chufas, cane, and whatever of corn—Kaffir and Indian—sorghum and the various garden stuff that fancy might suggest and compatable with means to feel out for as promising profit. In this way a living would be assured and the knowledge acquired regarding the most profitable of the desirable crops. Of course, fruits of all kinds indigenous to the locality should receive favor upon the farm, and be diversified and enlarged upon commensurate with the size of the pocketbook and the safety of the investment as having been demonstrated by fruit-growers in the vicinity.

To recapitulate, good roads throughout the State, and the pursuing of a diversified, intensive system of farming, would, we believe, soon bring into demand every tillable acre of land, and, in consequence, add wealth and prosperity to the State at large.

The trend of sentiment everywhere is for the abolition of the saloon. This is strikingly illustrated in Oklahoma, where the people have just voted by a large majority for prohibition of the liquor traffic. The tremendous sentiment which has now assumed such proportions in Miami and Dade county is simply another indication of the popular trend everywhere.—Miami Metropolis.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonals.

A GREAT STATE.

"Thousands of struggling farmers in Northern sections of this country, who are limited in their productions to the cereal crops and a few fruits and vegetables," says The St. Augustine Meteor, "Would think themselves in paradise could they land in Florida and review the almost unlimited number of field and orchard crops that can here be grown. And Florida is becoming more and more schooled in the art of putting to good account her advantages. Where years ago Florida looked to the West for her forage supplies, today she has forage to sell. St. Johns county farmers have corn and hay to sell, and this, too, from land that yielded a handsome money crop in the spring from Irish potatoes. Other sections of the State which are paying attention to the growing of cotton are now getting 15 cents for short staple and 35 cents from Sea Island, while those who are making tobacco a specialty are reaping a harvest on sun-grown at 25 cents and on the shaded product at $1 per pound. Lands that are now being cleared of a crop are being prepared for planting to the various kinds of vegetables. The guava, banana and other tropical fruits are moving from the southern extremity of the State, while the orange, which abounds throughout the peninsular of Florida, is on the eve of its exodus to the cities north of us. And so the work goes on from January to January."

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to do.—D. H. Beach, Midland, City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by all druggists.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity."

MR. STANFORD PROMOTED.

Will Be Chief of Field Staff of Ninth Division, U. S. Special Agents.

E. D. Stanford, special agent of the United States land office who has made his headquarters in Gainesville for the past two or three years, has been promoted, which will be glad news to his numerous friends, although they will regret very much to lose him.

Mr. Stanford on Thursday received a telegram from General Land Commissioner R. Ballunger, Washington, instructing him to proceed to New Orleans where he will assume charge as chief of field staff of the ninth division, comprising the States of Florida, Missouri, Arkansas, Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi.

While Mr. Stanford regrets very much to leave Gainesville, he says it is a promotion which he cannot afford to pass by. It gives him not only more salary, but more prestige and is a step higher in the land office work. Having the matter in his hands, however, he may decide to make his headquarters in Gainesville instead of New Orleans.

Mr. Stanford is quite popular, having been in public life for many years. He was at one time a member of the State Senate of North Carolina, and was for two terms journal clerk of the Senate of that State. He was afterwards elected State librarian, after which he served three years in the United States Treasury Department at Washington.

Returning to North Carolina, Mr. Stanford practiced law with great success before entering the Land Department of the United States Government.

Miss White attended the Technical High School of the Capital City, and when school opens will attend the High School here. Mr. White is the efficient bookbinder for the Pepper Printing Company.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Steenburg arrived in the city yesterday from Maryland, and for the present will make their home on West Main street N., with Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Thomas. Mr. Steenburg was married a few days ago, mention of which was made in The Sun. His wife is no stranger here, having been connected with the millinery department of The G. W. Hyde Company for some time. Friends are glad to welcome them home again.

A handsome water-color portrait, or painting, of little Miss Jessie Chesnut, which was done by Jas. F. Smith, adorns the window in the drug store of J. W. McCollum & Co., and has attracted a great deal of attention both by the beauty of the artist. Mr. Smith is one of the finest artists in the South, as has been demonstrated by several of his enlarged pictures. His work has taken premiums at several of the photographic and artists' conventions throughout the country.

Death of a Good Man.

Mr. A. W. Hinson, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of Hawthorn, died at that place on Tuesday, September 24th, and was buried on Wednesday. The funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church, the building being crowded by sorrowing friends who had assembled to pay their last respects and listen to the pastor, Rev. G. W. Riles, pay deserving tribute to a good and noble man. Mr. Hinson was the last surviving constituent member of Hawthorn Baptist church, which was organized in 1872.

Of Interest to Many.

J. Manasse has an advertisement in this issue in which he states that on next Saturday he will give a grand feast of bargains in clothing, dry goods, shoes, hats, skirts, ladies' ready-to-wear goods, notions, etc., and will give ten per cent of that day's sales to the Orphanage Home in Arcadia. If you want to help a good cause, wait until this sale, go and spend your money with Mr. Manasse, and help both yourself and the Orphanage.

The El Dorado Cafe, of which Theo. Hudgins is proprietor, has a change of advertisement in this issue. Mr. Hudgins makes a special talk about oysters—and if anybody in this section is in a position to talk about these luscious bivalves, it is Mr. Hudgins. Born and reared on the coast of Virginia, where they grow, he knows an oyster when he sees it, and he also knows whether it is fit to feed to a man or a dog. He never serves anything but the best, hence there is a reason why all lovers of something good find their way to his place—they feel absolutely assured that they are getting something fresh.

SERMONETTES

BY J. MARVIN NICHOLS.

John Adams once said that man is reasoning, but not a reasonable being. That is true. And sometimes the greater the reasoning capacity the more manifest unreasonableness.

Charge on the man who expects what he does to return to him. We must rise to an exalted sphere that we give as the night gives the day or as the flower sheds its fragrance.

In the reign of Justinian and Theodosius the Roman law contained one thousand volumes which no lawyer could buy, and no intellect could comprehend. And we are about to reproduce that age.

Gold blew two good men who will not enter the wild race for gold; who will not succumb the sweep of a mighty influence; whose influence is not on the block to be sold to the highest bidder. God give us men like that!

The other day I wrote to a banker inquiring as to the responsibility of a certain person. The answer came back, thus: 'He is a hundred per cent man in everything and anybody is undertaken.'" Say, just pin that over your desk.

In the march of history it is strange that those who have won our independence have at the same time won the battle for their necks, kindled the fires for martyrs, and sharpened the knives of the guillotines. We make history in an age of peace.

The world has always canonized its mythical heroes. They love the hero with the rider who bears the invincible sword. But some of them think the pen in the hand of a writer is mightier than any hero on a battlefield that turns the tide of destiny.

Elbert Hubbard declares that no one knows what power plants in the human mind the seeds of greatness. We like to think that great sons had great mothers, and that loving mothers endowed their offspring with their own rare natures. But there have been children of the world who surpassed fathers and mothers, who conquered heredity and environment and won by their bold undertakings turned revolution and defied all authority.

William E. Gladstone found time amid the stress of the home rule campaign and the Khartoum expedition to keep up the practice of translating Greek. Carlyle, just to rest himself of an evening, would get out his grammar and brush up on a few elementary propositions. Governor Hughes of New York, and of whose "unlimited feather duster" Hearst had so much to say in that whirlwind campaign, puts an algebra in his grip when he travels. With the strong man education never ends. No man really graduates until to him graduation becomes merely an imaginary point.

Nearly all the royalties of Europe could, if driven to it, earn their own living. The Queen of Roumania, Carmen Sylva, makes an income from her books that many authors cannot equal. The Emperor of Russia has a pleasing and well-trained tenor voice. Had he not been of royal blood he would undoubtedly have succeeded in grand opera. The Queen of Italy is a linguist of unusual talent. She converses with ease in eight different languages. She could easily become a teacher of languages. The King of England is said to be one of the best judges of wines and cigars in the world. He could grow rich as an expert dealer in these luguries. The Queen of Portugal has a medical degree and could easily make her way as a doctor. The German Emperor could make a good living as a poet, a musician, an artist, a shipbuilder, a pottery manufacturer, a horse dealer, an actor, a bookbinder, a clergyman, a tailor, a sculptor, a barber, a farmer, or a dentist.

Another year may bring us to see the light that never was on land or sea. The uncertainties of life hasten us into the great unknown. Why not make it our business, then, to enrich the world? A flower, a kind word, a hearty greeting—how small they seem. And yet these are the little streams that swell the great river of life. And at last they shall come to the great, open sea with their rich cargoes of affection and beauty. The great painting enraptures us—we try to discover of the artist's dream. We overlook the little touches here, the delicate shadings there—the lights and shadows that brought it to its perfection. So it is in life. You will never see the grand climax if perchance you overlook these more minute details of life.

"They say!"—that phrase has blasted more character and wrecked more homes than any other in the language. Call a halt on the lecherous peddler who comes at you with his wares—"They say." Level your gun at his cowardly heart—fire point blank. Put it straight—"Who says?" It hits the spot. You can't afford to miss. The person who circulates a scandal or peddles truth (one is as good as the other) is a vampire. They suck life-blood. I offer no apology for gathering here a recent editorial expression in The Fort Worth Telegram. I wish it might be written on every heart with an iron pen. It declares that no combination of words in the language has caused more trouble, pain and sorrow than the phrase "They say." It hits in the dark. It is anonymous. It has no personality. It canont suffer from any reaction. It is totally irresponsible. The phrase ought to be put under the ban. It is this way: You speak to someone of a mutual acquaintance. There is a shrug of the shoulders, or a lifting of the eyebrows. And the lowering of the voice, with the preface "They say." Even when the gossip fails to give his authority he has put an evil suggestion into your mind respecting the person he speaks of, a suggestion it is impossible to be rid of. The impression stays. The suspicion lurks. A great wrong is done. "They say." When the suggestion is dropped into eager ears, the assassination of character is begun when there is a willing mouth to give the message to other eager ears. What "They say" may sometimes be a true message. But is it a necessary message? Will it make the world better or worse by the telling of it? It is very plain that much suffering and sorrow might be prevented by cutting the ugly words clear out of the vocabulary. And let me add—if a man or woman won't cut the phrase out of their speech, you cut them out—and be quick!

Cures Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Fired Low But Killed Man.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 28—A special to the Sentinel from Newport, Tenn., says Robert Whipple, aged 25 years, was shot by DDeputy Sheriff Joe German at that place Thursday night. Whipple attempted to escape after being arrested, and German shot low, not intending to kill him. The bullet severed an artery in the thigh and Whipple bled to death. German will submit to arrest if a warrant is issued.

She Found Relief.

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas: "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish." S.S.S. PURIFIES THE BLOOD

There is no other part of our physical system upon which so much depends as upon the blood. The muscles, nerves, bones, sinews, skin, and other portions of the body are sustained, developed and enabled to perform their different duties, because they are supplied with nourishment and healthful properties through the circulation. In various ways the blood becomes contaminated and polluted. A sluggish, inactive condition of the system, and torpid state of the avenues of bodily waste, will leave the refuse and waste matter of the body to sour and form uric and other acids, which are absorbed into the blood and Rheumatism, or some itching, disfiguring skin disease is the result. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, splotches, pimples, etc., all show that some humor has taken root in the circulation and rendered it sour and unfit for nourishing the body. There is scarcely any disease which cannot be traced to the blood. Often the disease-tainted blood of parents is handed down to children and their lives are a continual battle against disease in some form, usually of a scrofulous nature. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood troubles, and until this vital fluid is purified they cannot be cured. For all blood diseases S. S. S. is the best remedy ever put upon the market. This great medicine is made of roots, herbs and barks of recognized blood-purifying and building-up properties. It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, impurities and humors, supplies the blood with the healthful properties it needs and completely cures blood diseases of every kind. S. S. "JUST FROM GEORGIA"

F. L. S. in Atlanta Constitution.

A Georgia Jingle.

I.

When I'm feelin' lonesome an' the fiddle plays,
I git right back to my dancin' days!
Heel-an'-toe
With the rest I go—
Oh, I git right back to my dancin' days!

II.

When I'm lost in the valley where Trouble stays,
The light comes streamin' when the fiddle plays!
When I hear the call,
An' it's "Hands 'round, all!"
Oh, I git right back to my dancin' days!

An Editorial Compromise.

"Here's a dollar for your paper," said the new subscriber to the rural editor. "I've hearn tell you are offerin' premiums for new subscribers, an' I 'lowed that I wanted a gold watch, but the old woman took on so 'bout not havin' no sewin' machine that I reckon I'll have to compromise an' do without the watch awhile."

"I'm sorry," said the editor, "but I gave away the last gold watches and sewing machines last week. I'm afraid you'll have to compromise on a house and lot!"

A Backwoods Humorist.

Two Eastern tourists decided to have a little fun with a Billville citizen to whom they had applied for information as to the road they were traveling.

"How long have you lived here?" they asked.

"Long enough to know better."

"Don't you like the country?"

"When it goes to suit me."

"Ever been up in an airship?"

"No. When I make up my mind to fly I'll know whar to light."

"Ever ride on a railroad train?"

"No. Nighest I ever come to it wuz bein' blowed up by a sawmill."

"Well, tell us what 'moonshine' liquor means?"

The Billville man shifted his "chaw" of tobacco from one jaw to the other, spat on the greensward, and as he prepared to climb the fence, said:

"H——l, and a heep of it!"

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

For two seasons I have prepared and served you the best Oysters grown, and have never had one complaint.
